Crises In Far East MIC Topic

"Crises in the Far East" was the subject of a paper presented by Mrs. Nelson Lambert for the program of Mutual Improvement Circle at meeting Tuesday afternoon in home of Mrs. Paul March, 1720 East Second St.

In her discussion, Mrs. Lambert stated that situations as they are in the Far East and because of the many changes being made constantly, the problems facing mankind are many. With emphasis on India and China, Mrs. Lambert pointed out that the future of the world depends on the development of India. She said that only in the last 15 years has the impact of civilization hit China and India. China in a communistic way and India in a democratic way.

She further stated that the times are apocalyptic. It is only by fixing our mind on the ultimate goal that we can preserve our sense of proportion and face the problems of the world today.

For the April 2 meeting, Mrs. C. B. Guilford, 111 Biede Ave., will be hostess with Miss Augusta Kehnast to have the program.

Dear Abby

Boys, Girls Equal In 'Bringing Up'

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am the mother of three sons, and I've heard many other mothers say, "You are lucky you have boys. You don't have to worry the way mothers of daughters do!" Abby, this burns me up. They think if a girl gets in trouble it's her funeral, and boys don't create any problems no matter what they do. What can I say to let them know they are dead wrong?

MOTHER OF BOYS DEAR MOTHER: People who make such thoughtless remarks should be told that when a girl "gets in trouble" the parents are just as heart-sick as the girl's parents. And, furthermore, since the males are supposedly the natural aggressors, the job of rearing decent and disciplined boys is certainly equal to that of raising well-behaved girls.

DEAR ABBY: I wrote to you asking you to put me in touch with a man signed FLORIDA, who was looking for a wife. He sounded just right for me and I know we could have made a wonderful match. I was terribly disappointed when you wrote back saying that as a matter of policy you did not put people in touch with each other through your column. Why do you have such a policy when you could get so many nice people together?

DISAPPOINTED IN YOU

DEAR DISAPPOINTED: You would be more disappointed were I to abandon my policy and get one "nice" person (you) together with one who was not so nice. I can't investigate everyone who writes to me. So rather than pair a lamb with a wolf, I stick to my policy.

DEAR ABBY: Do you think it is right for parents to permit two children under ten years of age to watch the dog give birth to a litter of puppies? I just got a phone call that my daughter-in-law thought it was all right, and my son approved it. I would like to know what you think of letting children watch this procedure.

SHOCKED DEAR SHOCKED: I know of no better way for young people to learn about the beginning of life, which is a subject baffling to youngsters — and not easy for oldsters to explain.

DEAR ABBY: Cheers for BOTHERED, and her comment on "My, you look nice TODAY." The next most uncomplimentary compliment when I'm all dressed up is, "Is that NEW?"

TWICE BOTHERED Stop worrying. Write to Abby. For a personal reply enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Contract Bridge

By B. Jay Becker

(Top Record Holder in Master's Individual Championship Play)

Your right-hand opponent deals and bids Three Hearts, both sides vulnerable. What would you now bid with each of the following five hands?

1. ♠A ♣Q ♠5 ♠A ♣6 ♠K ♣72
2. ♠A ♣5 ♠K ♠A ♣6 ♠K ♣3
3. ♠A ♣J ♠8 ♠A ♣A ♠8 ♠K ♣3
4. ♠A ♣72 ♠A ♣6 ♠3 ♠A ♣J85
5. ♠6 ♠K ♣Q ♠7 ♠852 ♠A ♣K74

1. Double. There are all kinds of methods used to deal with preemptive bids by the opponents, but the most common one, and probably the best, is to treat the double as a request for partner to bid. This does not mean that partner cannot pass if his hand is suitable for defense. It means only that the doubler intends his bid primarily for takeout.

Certainly, in this case, you would like partner to respond to the double with his best suit. The double of a three-bid naturally shows a good hand, since partner, in responding, is compelled to undertake at least a nine-trick contract.

2. Three notrump. This is a natural bid showing willingness to play at three notrump, which the hand certainly warrants. It would be wrong to overcall in diamonds and by-pass what is likely to be the best contract. The same can be said of a double of three hearts. Partner is not barred from bidding over three notrump, if his hand calls for that action, but he does so on his own responsibility.

3. Four spades. You can't very well bid less with a hand of this magnitude. There is no guarantee of making four spades, of course, but it would be somewhat timid to do less. There is such a thing as playing them too close to the vest.

4. Four hearts. The best way of showing the power of this hand is to cuebid the adverse suit. Naturally, such a bid is highly invitational to a slam, since partner is forced to contract for eleven tricks—possibly against his will—if his longest suit is diamonds or clubs.

The cuebid is reserved for huge hands of this sort. Partner doesn't need much excuse to bid a slam in response. Thus, he would be justified in bidding six diamonds with no more than:

- ♠J84 ♠96 ♠A ♣10852 ♠103
5. Pass. One might conceivably feel the urge to double three hearts for business, but remember that against preemptive bids you can't have it both ways. A double would be for takeout, as previously indicated, and you therefore can't afford to double for fear partner might respond with three or four spades.

The best thing to do is pass and hope the opponents go further, or, failing that, that partner will act on his own if your left-hand opponent passes.

Local Man To Be Ordained PIME Missioner March 30

Setting a precedent for the Society of the Pontifical Institute for Foreign Missions (PIME) in the United States, His Excellency Ferdinand Guercilena, PIME, bishop of Kengtung, Burma, will ordain Charles Minck a PIME missionary on Saturday, March 30 at Maryglade Major Seminary, Memphis, Mich.

The event will mark the first time in the history of the Province that a PIME bishop has administered the Sacrament of Holy Orders on American soil.

Father Minck, son of Mrs. Julia Minck, 321 Jefferson Ave., and the late John Minck, is a graduate of Notre Dame University. Following his discharge from the Army in the fall of 1956, he entered St. Philip Neri School in Boston for delayed vocations.

A year later he entered the society of the PIME for studies in Newark, Ohio. His summers have been spent between Fordham University and the University of Notre Dame where he pursued an advanced degree in physics.

Father Minck will celebrate his First Solemn Mass at the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament in Detroit on Sunday, March 31 at 10 a.m.

Bishop Guercilena, who will bestow the sacrament on Father Minck, is here in this country on a three-month stay to meet with American friends and benefactors who have aided him in his Kengtung, Burma, Diocese. Popularly called the "Bishop of the jungles" because of his 35 years spent as a missionary in the remote, wild Burmese jungle country, His Excellency will return to Burma in May of this year.

'Beer Seasons Beef'

The grand old Hibernian tradition of serving corned beef and cabbage is a time-honored one. And when both the beef brisket and vegetable are simmered in either beer or ale, the amber brew imparts a marvelously subtle yet slightly tangy flavor.

Beer Cabbage Dinner

Corned Beef and Potatoes:

- 1 4-pound corned beef brisket
- 12 ounces (bottle or can) beer or ale
- 1 small onion, sliced
- 1 bay leaf
- 1/2 teaspoon whole cloves
- 4 peppercorns
- 2 stalks celery, with leaves
- 6 to 8 whole potatoes, pared

Put brisket in deep kettle; add cold water just to cover. Add beer. Add onion slices, bay leaf, cloves, peppercorns and celery. Cover; bring to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer 4 to 5 hours, or until tender. During last 30 minutes' cooking time, add pared, whole potatoes.

Cabbage:

- 1 large head cabbage, cut in thin wedges
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup beer or ale
- 1/2 cup water

Place cabbage wedges in large skillet. Sprinkle with salt; add beer and water. Cover with a tight-fitting lid. Cook over medium heat 15 minutes. To serve, carefully place drained cabbage wedges on serving platter. Top with corned beef slices. Serve with boiled and drained potatoes which have been sprinkled with finely chopped parsley.

YIELD: 6 to 8 servings.
